Day 02 – 4th, Hanoi Sightseeing (B, L, D)

An early start this morning to bring you a unique and magical insight into Vietnam's people on a Good Morning Hanoi tour. Hanoi'ites begin their day early with many taking part in exercise around the picturesque Hoan Kiem Lake. Your walking tour visits the lake where you will see residents enjoying Tai Chi, exercise and meditation. You'll get to see the inner city 'old quarter' as its narrow streets begin to fill up with the bikes and people of Hanoi as their day starts – a fascinating look at two sides of the city and daily life We then return to the hotel for breakfast and to freshen up. Then it's on to visit the city main historical sites including the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum and Ho Chi Minh's house, where he preferred to live simply, which are splendid reminders of the great man who once led this country. One Pillar Pagoda is a small but significant pagoda with a Buddhist representation of the world and the Temple of Literature which was originally built in 1070. Our last stop is at the Ho Chi Minh Museum for a brief insight into the history of the man who has is recognized as the modern father of this country. We stop for lunch at KOTO – an opportunity for us to support a fantastic organization, KOTO is a not-for-profit restaurant and vocational training program that is changing the lives of street and disadvantaged youth in Vietnam. Late afternoon and evening is at leisure to enjoy Hanoi's narrow streets and the fascinating old quarter. We then go to see the Water Puppet Theatre – a colorful form of traditional entertainment. Overnight at Church Hotel**** or similar.

Day 03 – 5th: Hanoi – Halong Bay (B, L, D)

Departing Hanoi this morning, we travel through rice fields and small towns to Halong Bay. Here we board a traditional junk boat (Bhaya cruise) for a boat trip through the magical seascape of Halong Bay which includes stops at various islands and caves. For those who wish, time is spent anchored for a swim or optional kayaking is available (payable to your guide). Overnight is spent on board in air-conditioned cabins with dinner on board. Overnight in Phoenix Junk****.

Day 04 - 6th , Halong Bay – Hanoi – Hue by overnight train (Brunch, Dinner)

Rising to the tranquil beauty of the bay we have time for an early morning dip with joys and emotions for watching sunrise on sea followed by breakfast. This morning we continue to move around the bay to find more secluded areas. The junk will be near us at all times serving as a backup vessel for those that require it. At around midday we will return to the main harbor before transferring to our awaiting vehicle for a 3-hour journey back to Hanoi. Arrive Ha Noi and check in hotel for relax. After dinner transfer to train station for 7pm overnight train to Hue.

Day 05 – 7th, Hue arrival and Sightseeing (B, L, D)

Arrive at Hue station around 8 am. After breakfast at hotel, we explore the historic city of Hue – the former Imperial City. We start the day with a boat trip along the Perfume River to Thien Mu Pagoda, which was built in 1601. Then continuing by road to the Ancient Citadel, the capital of Vietnam from 1802-1945, which was recognized as a World Heritage Site, where the last King of Vietnam – Bao Dai King – abdicated on 30 August, 1945. After lunch at a rustic but delicious and popular local restaurant – visit Khai Dinh Tomb (5) with its mix of Asian and Western architecture. Then we will go to visit Tu Duc Tomb before coming back to hotel for relax. Imperial Dinner at An Dinh Vien restaurant. Overnight at Midtown Hotel**** or similar.

Day 06, - 8th: Hue – Hai Van Pass – Hoi An [130k] (B, L, D)

This morning we travel over the spectacular Hai Van Pass, once rated by National Geographic as one of the 50 ‘must-do’ journeys in the world. Stunning views await of Lang Co Beach and out to the South China Sea as we take the winding mountain road. Just after leaving Hue we make a special stop at Duc Son Pagoda. Run by Buddhist Nun Thich Nu Minh Tu. The Temple not only gives shelter to disadvantaged children, including Orphans and the homeless, the nuns have also created favourable conditions for the children to attend classes and go on to higher education. A brief visit allows you to see the wonderful work and the temple. Continuing on we traverse the spectacular Hai Van Pass with a photo stop at the top, before stopping at China Beach, famous from the TV series and home to the American R&R post during the war. After that, visiting Marble mountain Stonecutters before arriving in Hoi An. During the 17th and 18th centuries Hoi An was a major Asian trading centre and is now one of the most popular places to visit in Vietnam with its charming cobblestone streets and old shop houses. A wonderful town for getting clothes tailor made (We will arrive early enough to get a fitting for the clothes you require) or for buying art and souvenirs, Hoi An also boasts an excellent beach 5km from town, which can be reached by hiring a bicycle or grabbing a taxi. Overnight at Green Heaven Hotel**** or similar.

Day 07 – 9th: Hoi An – My Son – Hoi An (B, L, D)

Today begins with a tour to the ancient ruins of My Son – the home to the Cham people centuries ago. The Kingdom at My Son dates back to the 4th century and remained fully occupied through until the 13th century which makes it the longest occupied of all the major monuments of SE Asia. Today the ruins show testament to the Cham with its sculptures and buildings. Check out the clothes you ordered - Maybe a refitting, before a short walking tour introduces you to this ancient town’s old shop houses and the Japanese covered bridge. Visit the Great Lake - Tonle Sap for a boat trip to see the floating village. Overnight at Saem Siem Reap Hotel**** or similar

Day 19 – 21st: Siem Reap (B, L, D)

Depart for an excursion to Kbal Spean, about 40Km. from Siem Reap. Also known as The River of the Thousand Lingas (Hindu images) this sacred site is situated in the Kulen Mountains and was "discovered" in 1968 by Jean Boulbet, a French researcher from the Ecole Francaise d'Extreme-Orient. Take a walk through the jungle (recommend to take good non slip walking shoes during the rainy season) before you reach the river that contributes to the irrigation of Angkor. The bed of the river is lavishly sculpted. Numerous lingas lay there, caressed by the crystal – clear waters. Basreliefs depict scenes from the Brahman pantheon such as Vishnu lying. According to inscriptions found there, the site was decorated from 1054 onwards. Return to Siem Reap in the afternoon with a stop to visit the magnificent Banteay Srey temple. Overnight at Saem Siem Reap Hotel**** or similar

Day 20 – 22nd: Siem Reap – Phnom Penh (B, L, D)

Transfer to Siem Reap airport for departure to Phnom Penh. Phnom Penh: the name can't help but conjure up an image of the exotic. The glimmering spires of the royal palace, the fluttering saffron of the monks' robes, and the luscious location on the banks of the mighty Mekong; this is one of Asia's undiscovered gems. Phnom Penh can be an assault on the senses. Motorbikes whiz through the backstreets without a thought for pedestrians; pungent scents float up from stalls and markets; and all the while the sound of life, of commerce, of survival, reverberates all around. But this is all part of the attraction. It's not just another metropolis, the identikit image of a modern capital; it is an older Asia that many dreamed of when first planning their adventures overseas. Once the 'Pearl of Asia', Phnom Penh's shine was tarnished by the impact of war and revolution. Delve into the ancient past at the National Museum or struggle to make sense of the Khmer Rouge "Killing Fields" and museum. Stay overnight at Imperial Garden Hotel
